Forestburg Village

ABOUT

The Village of Forestburg is a vibrant, friendly community located approximately 80 km southeast of Camrose. It offers an exciting blend of recreational and cultural opportunities and business services. The Village has a great quality of life and a vibrant business community.

Forestburg's main economic base includes agriculture, coal mining, power generation, oil and gas activity, and business and retail services. It is home to the Forestburg Seed Cleaning Plant and has several seed, chemical, and fertilizer suppliers including Nutrien Ag Solutions, Pioneer BBK Fams Ltd., Ag Resource, and the Battle River Research Group – Agriculture and Extension. Traditional crops such as wheat, oats and barley thrive due to the rich, black soil in the area. There is also traditional livestock farming such as cattle, hogs, poultry, bison, elk and honeybees.
